

Algorithms/Flags to Identify Clinical Inconsistency in the Use of Rating Scales in CNS RCTs
Working Group Meeting Summary
8 April 2021

The 17th Annual working group session focused on development of consistency flags for the Hamilton Depression Rating Scale. The group reviewed a working draft of consistency flags for the HAMD developed since the last meeting. Development of the flags for this scale will continue via ongoing online meetings.