

- Group reviewed plan for the work group product of a guidance for translation and cultural adaptation of clinician rated outcome measures
- Had a presentation of cultural issues to consider
- Discussed whether the group wanted to now focus on other issues we had discussed as options at the formation of the workgroup
- Strong support from members to tackle a new topic
- New topic will be addressing various issues contributing to variability in international clinical trials